Dear [redacted] STAT

This will confirm our meeting next Tuesday, 12 June, at 10:00 a.m., in connection with the official history of Richard Helms as Director of Central Intelligence that the History Staff is preparing.

As I believe I said on the telephone, I anticipate needing about an hour of your time.

Please know of my appreciation for your willingness to share your recollections. If these arrangements unexpectedly become inconvenient, I can be reached at [redacted] STAT

I look forward to meeting with you next Tuesday.

Sincerely,
